METHODOLOGY

FOR THE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION FOR A BACHELOR’S DEGREE

- THE FACULTY OF MEDICINE

THE ENGLISH TEACHING MODULE - THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2021-2022

The own methodology of the University of Medicine and Pharmacy „Carol Davila” Bucharest is drawn up according to:

- The provisions of the National Education Law no. 1/2011;
- OMEN 3473/17.03.2017;
- OMEC 4151/24.04.2020 modifying OMEN 3473/2017;
- OMEC 4241/2020;
- OMEC 4205/2020;
- Regulation regarding the professional activity of students.

For the Medicine – English teaching study programme – under the sectoral regulations in the European Union, the duration of the studies is 6 years, and the number of credits to be obtained is 360.

For the English teaching study programme, the candidates shall be admitted on a file based competition (through the assessment of the school performances and personal achievements). For this programme, the citizens from the E.U. countries, the European Economic Area (E.E.A.) and the Swiss Confederation, the foreign citizens from the non—E.U. countries and the Romanian citizens can apply. According to the Law 316/2006, the citizens from the E.U. countries, the European Economic Area (E.E.A.) and the Swiss Confederation have the right for enrollment for studies under the same conditions as the Romanian citizens.

The minimum condition to apply for the Bachelor’s degree studies is the graduation of an accredited high school in the country of origin and whose awarded diploma should grant access to academic studies in the respective country and should be recognized by the Ministry of National Education and Research in Romania.

The enrollment to the studies is subject to the observance of the legal provisions regarding the necessary minimum criteria for attending the academic studies, as well as of the legislative provisions concerning the residence in Romania during the studies.

Each year, the University Senate shall decide, with the approval of the Ministry of National Education and Research, the maximum number of seats available. For the first academic year 2021/2022 - 300 seats have been approved (link).

Throughout the studies, the teaching activities (courses) are taught in English. Due to the need to communicate with the patients, the rotations are conducted in Romanian, in all the years of study.

The linguistic competency of the candidates must be obligatorily proved by the presence of supporting documents in the file, according to one of the two conditions:

1. By submitting an internationally recognized language proficiency certificate;

The certificates must provide an explicit indication of the level of language (minimum B2 level, according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages). ANNEX 3); The citizens who have completed high school studies in an educational institution in which the language of instruction is English or who have obtained at least B2 level as part of the Bacalaureate examination are exempted from providing the language proficiency certificate;

2. An English examination, conducted at the Discipline of Modern Languages, the Faculty of Medicine. In order to sit for this exam a € 400 (non-EU countries) / the equivalent value in RON of € 400 (EU countries) fee shall be paid. For this option, the candidates are asked to make a prior appointment at the Office for Foreign Students, by sending an e-mail to studentistraini@umfcd.ro. The examination schedule can be found in ANNEX 8.

FOR THE CITIZENS FROM THE E.U. COUNTRIES, THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC AREA (E.E.A.), THE SWISS CONFEDERATION AND THE ROMANIAN CITIZENS

How to apply:

1. The candidate shall access the U.M.F. "Carol Davila" Bucharest entrance platform at <http://inscrierestudstraini.umfcd.ro> and shall upload all the documents mentioned (the selection criteria set by the university shall be filled in with the personal information required in annex 6).

2. The candidates' files submitted online are subject to a verification by the Office for Foreign Students:

- If the file contains all the mentioned documents.

- If the file is complete, the candidate shall receive a validation email.
- If the file is incomplete, the candidate shall receive an email for correction, through which he/she shall be asked for the missing/incomplete/incorrect documents.

The examination schedule shall be posted subsequently on the University website

The assessment committee, appointed by a Decision of the Board of Directors, shall select the files by awarding a score in accordance with the Assessment Grid.

The candidate shall be declared eligible when the file is complete. The incomplete files shall be processed but are not eligible for assessment.

The enrollment in the study programmes of the university depends on the recognition of the studies by the National Centre for Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas. The non-recognition by the National Centre for Recognition and Equivalence of Diplomas of your studies denies your enrollment.

IMPORTANT!

• If the surname and forename of the candidate on the Baccalaureate Diploma are not identical to the surname and forename appearing on his/her birth certificate or passport, the candidate is required to submit a certified explanatory note.
